3.7 Postings

There are postings hung, year round, on the wall just inside of the employee entrance next to the time clock, up in the break room, and at the front entrance. These posting outline labor laws, safety, scheduled holidays, temporary payroll changes due to holidays scheduled, and updated scheduled employee time off.

The evacuation plan map is also located in these areas as well. Please refer to these postings in the event of an emergency. If you need assistance in determining the location of the nearest exit, each map is equipped with a red dot that indicates its location within the facility.

Signs to remind employees of company holiday closings are posted throughout the office and plant for one week prior to each closure.

3.8 Building Safety/Security

Each and every employee must follow the building security rules and regulations listed in the Employee Safety Manual.

Employees are not allowed on General Stamping Company property after hours without prior authorization from their supervisor.

3.9 Personal Property

General Stamping Company assumes no risk for any loss or damage to personal property of an employee.

- Visitors to the company who are there on business must identify themselves and have checked in through the office.
- No visitor is allowed to wander around the premises unescorted.
- No visitor is allowed to break company policies affecting safety; any employee seeing this happen should inform his or her supervisor.
- All visitors must sign in using office sign in sheet.

3.11 Weather-related and Emergency-related Closings

All employees are urged to make every possible effort to get to work.

Those employees who cannot make it to work in inclement weather, or those employees who choose not to risk the drive to work in inclement weather, must follow the procedure listed in the heading, 4.2 "Calling In".

All employees who leave early or do not come to work during hours in which the company has not been formally closed will be allowed to substitute personal and/or vacation days in the event that the employee:

1. Has time available
2. Requests such a substitution be made

In the event of a formal company closure, employees who have followed company policy will have the opportunity to make up the time that they have lost. The employee doesn't need to use vacation/personal time if they choose to make up the time. If they do decide to make up the time, then they need to do so with prior authorization from the President.

General Stamping will not pay for time not worked.

President may deny use of paid time off to all staff in the event of a formal company closing if it is necessary to maintain work and production schedules.

4 STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

4.1 General Guidelines

All employees are urged to become familiar with General Stamping Company rules and standards of conduct and are expected to follow these rules and standards faithfully in doing their own jobs and conducting the company's business.

4.2 Calling In

In the event that an employee becomes ill or cannot make it to work at his/her designated start time, that employee must call in and speak to his/her immediate supervisor before 8:00 A.M.

Failure to follow this policy will result in forfeiture of pay for that personal/vacation day.

Failure to follow this policy may result in suspension or termination.

4.3 Attendance and Punctuality

Employees are sometimes absent. As a general principle an employer has the right to expect that employees will be present, ready for work, when and where they are assigned.

There are exceptions, of course – employees often believe that an excused absence offers a kind of immunity from discipline. This may be true to the extent that an employer recognizes some legitimate reasons for being absent. The employer still has a right, though, to demand reliable performance and to act when that demand is not met.

It is essential for the success of the company and for the security of everyone's job that the company meet its production schedules on time. In order to accomplish this objective, regular and prompt attendance at work is required of all employees.

Attendance records, therefore, will be kept on record for the duration of the year and will renew on January 1st of each consecutive year.

1 st Unexcused Absence	Written Warning
2 nd Unexcused Absence	3 Day Suspension – No Pay
3 rd Unexcused Absence	10 Day Suspension – No Pay and/or Termination

This list will serve as a notice of the steps of recourse that supervisors may utilize in dealing with attendance problems. Consequences will ultimately be decided by a supervisor on a case basis. These guidelines are to be used at the discretion of management and should be perceived as possible penalties for each individually listed offense.

An absence will be considered excused only if, in the event that an employee becomes ill and cannot report to work on any given day that employee follows procedure listed in the calling in portion of this manual and is able to substantiate the illness with a doctor's note at the discretion and request of a supervisor.

General Stamping will not allow the manipulation of personal or vacation pay benefits to compensate for an unexcused absence. An unexcused absence will result in forfeiture of pay for time missed.

2018 Updated Policy

When an employee uses their last paid day off, a formal meeting with Human Resources is required. During that meeting, HR will provide that employee with a written copy of the paid days off used for that calendar year and a formal written attendance warning outlining the last paid day used. After all paid time off has been used, future absenteeism by that employee is considered unexcused by management. If an employee takes additional time off after all days have been used, the new company policy is:

- a. No pay.
- b. Each unexcused day off = 1 paid day off forfeited for the following calendar year.
- c. If an employee is absent and there is a very good reason (example: death in immediate family, court order, etc.) at that time the request for time off will either be granted or denied by management.

Temp Attendance Policy (Effective 11/17/17)

During the temp's 600-hour probationary period they may miss 2 days of work. If the temp is absent for a 3rd day during this period, they will be fired by management. Excused days will be reviewed and decided by management on a case by case basis.

4.4 Tardiness/Early Departure

Employees are expected to be on time. Continued lateness will not be tolerated and may result in an employee's dismissal.

If you are going to be unavoidably detained, you should phone in and make your supervisor aware of the situation.

Employees must punch their own timecards when they start or stop work. Anyone attempting to sign or punch any card other than their own may be dismissed.

Anyone found cheating on his or her time sheet may be subject to immediate dismissal.

Any employee who forgets to punch in or out on their timecard should notify his/her supervisor as soon as possible.

Records will be kept from January 1st and renew on January 1st of each year.

1 st Unexcused Lateness/Early Leave	Oral Warning
2 nd Unexcused Lateness/Early Leave	Written Warning
3 rd Unexcused Lateness/Early Leave	3 Day Suspension – No Pay
4 th Unexcused Lateness/Early Leave	10 Day Suspension – No Pay and/or Termination

This list will serve as a notice of the steps of recourse that supervisors may utilize in dealing with Lateness and/or Leaving Early. Consequences will ultimately be decided by a supervisor on a case basis. These guidelines are to be used at the discretion of management and should be perceived as possible penalties for each individually listed offense.

Lateness/leaving early may be deemed excused at the discretion of a supervisor provided that the employee submits and receives approval on a "Request for Time Off" sheet, in writing, to and by a supervisor with a minimum of one week notice prior to his/her anticipated absence.

In the event that lateness is the direct result of an emergency situation or illness, employees must follow the procedure listed under Section 4.2 "Calling In" in this manual and see an immediate supervisor when reporting to work. In the event that early leave is the direct result of an emergency situation or illness, employees must see an immediate supervisor before leaving the premises and report back to that supervisor upon returning to work to discuss the situation at greater length. Only following the meeting with your supervisor when you return to work will lateness/ leaving early be deemed to be excused or unexcused, in either of the circumstances listed above. The determination, by the employee's immediate supervisor, as to whether or not the lateness is excused will be forwarded both to the office and to the employee, in writing on the day following the event.

The completed "Request for Medical coverage" sheet must then, once again, be returned to Human Resources. Enrollment paperwork will be submitted to the current carrier within thirty days of the Administrator's approval and endorsement of the completed application.

Medical carriers may deny or defer enrollment based on pre-existing conditions, requests for "Certificates of Credible Coverage", statements of good health, dependent age or proof of qualifications, etc. – denials or enrollment deferrals will be addressed by General Stamping on a case basis.

6.2 Annual Health and Dental Benefits Review

Health and dental benefits and the costs associated with these employer paid benefits are reviewed by management every year. Changes to health and dental benefits including potential employee contributions to offset the rising cost of benefits will be announced by the President as required at anytime.

7 TIME-OFF BENEFITS

7.1 Holiday Policy

Part time employees with 2 or more years of employment will be paid for the holidays that fall on their normal scheduled work days, not in addition to their work schedule.

- Note: Full and Part-time employees must, in order to receive this benefit, work both the day before and the day after any given holiday.
- In the event that an employee, whether that employee works Full or Part-Time, fails to report to work on either of the aforementioned days surrounding a holiday, General Stamping will rightfully withhold said employee’s holiday pay indefinitely, based on willful non-conformance with the company policy. In addition and again, failure to follow company policy may also result in suspension or termination.
- Paid holidays are listed within this manual and are reviewed by management every year.

An updated schedule of dates for the holidays will be provided on an annual basis.*

7.2 Vacation Time

General Stamping offers Full-Time employees paid vacation time in addition to the scheduled holidays which can be taken by means of scheduling them with a “Request For Time Off” sheet. Time off sheet should be submitted to and approved by a supervisor at least two weeks prior to your scheduled commencement of time off. Vacation should be taken in one week increments with no more than 2 weeks’ vacation allowed at a time.

Paid days are earned in correlation with time employed by General Stamping.

8 or more	15 Days

*Vacation time may be accumulated for a maximum of one year – accumulation years run from January 1st to December 31st. Up to 3 days maximum may be carried to the next year however they must be used by the end of March each year or they will be forfeited.

General Stamping will not pay vacation time for tardiness, leaving early, or days on which an employee fails to report to work. Any attempt to manipulate vacation days in this or any other manner and/or any departure from the policy listed above will result in non-payment of the amount of time that an employee has submitted and may lead to suspension or termination.

General Stamping offers staggered vacation time instead of the plant closing, and permission depends on work volume for that time – requests will be granted on a first come, first serve basis.

Reinstatement:

1. Employees are required to contact the President 2 weeks prior to their prospective return date.
2. General Stamping will attempt to place an employee, upon his/her return from a leave of absence, either in the same or comparable position to his/her prior position for leaves lasting 60 days or less. In the event that there is no work available for the employee wishing to return from a 60 day or less leave at the time that he/she is scheduled to return, General Stamping will extend the unpaid leave of absence, under the same conditions that originally applied (original time constraints are accepted), and recall the employee when a suitable opening arises.
3. General Stamping cannot guarantee the availability of the previous or comparable position for employees wishing to return from a 61 day longer leave (unless the leave was granted for maternity or medical reasons, in which case return will be dictated by the 60 day or less reinstatement policy as described above). Availability will be considered, and every attempt will be made to place the returning employee, but in the event that there is not enough work to support the employee's previous or a comparable position, the employee may be laid off until such time that a recall of past employees is possible.
